

Chapter 28

DEFINITIONS

Words in this Zoning ordinance are normally used in their ordinary English usage. Certain terms, are, however, defined in this Chapter and whenever used in this Zoning Ordinance, they shall have the meaning set forth in the Section and Subsections of this chapter, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning. Words used in the present tense shall include the future; the singular number shall include the plural and the plural the singular; word "building" shall include the word "structure" and the word "shall" is mandatory not directory.

ACCESSORY BUILDING: A subordinate building or a portion of the main building; the use of which is incidental to that of the main building or to the use of the premises.

AGRICULTURE: The use of land for agricultural purposes, including farming, dairying, pasturage, apiculture, horticulture, floriculture, viticulture and animal and poultry husbandry, and the necessary accessory uses for packing, treating, storing or selling the produce; provided, however, that the operation of any such accessory uses shall be secondary to that of the normal agriculture activities, and provided further, that the above uses shall not include the commercial feeding of garbage or offal to swine or other animals.

ALLEY: A public way which affords only a secondary means of access to abutting property.

APARTMENT: A room or suite of rooms in a multiple dwelling intended or designed for use as a residence by a single family.

APARTMENT HOUSE: See Dwelling, Multiple.

ARTERIAL STREET: Roadways intended to serve as primary connectors between residential and other types of development. Generally, these are state and county roadways.

BASEMENT: A story having part but not more than one-half (1/2) height below grade. A basement is counted as a story for purpose of height regulations.

BOARD: Township Board of Zoning Appeals as created by this Resolution.

BOARDING HOUSE: A building other than a hotel where, for compensation, meals or lodging and means, are provided for three (3) but not more than twenty (20) persons.

BUFFER YARD: An area of natural or planted vegetation adjoining or surrounding a land use and unoccupied in its entirety by any building, paving or recreational use.

BUILDING: Any structure designed or intended for the support, enclosure, shelter, or protection of persons, animals, chattels, or property.

BUILDING, HEIGHT OF: The vertical distance from the grade to the highest point of the coping of a flat roof or to the deck line of a mansard roof, or to the mean height level between eaves and ridge for gable, hip and gambrel roofs.

CELLAR: A story having more than one-half (1/2) of its height below grade. A cellar is counted as a story for the purpose of height regulations only if used for dwelling purposes other than by a janitor employed on the premises.

CELLULAR OR WIRELESS TELECOMMUNICATION TOWER - any freestanding structure used to support cellular, PCS or wireless communication antennas.

CHILD DAY-CARE: Administering to the need of infants, toddlers, pre-school children, and school children outside of school hours by persons other than their parents or guardians, custodians, or relatives by blood, marriage, or adoption for any part of the twenty-four hour day in a place or residence other than the child's own home. The following are child day-care facilities:

1. Child Day Care Center, means any place in which child day-care is provided, with or without compensation, for 13 or more children at any one time, or any place that is not the permanent residence of the licensee or administrator in which child day-care is provided, with or without compensation, for 7 to 12 children at any one time. In counting children for the purposes of this definition, any children under 6 years of age who are related to a licensee, administrator, or employee and who are on the premises shall be counted.
2. Type A Family Day Care Home, means a permanent residence of the administrator in which child day-care is provided for 4 to 12 children at any one time, if 4 or more children are under 2 years of age. In counting children for the purposes of this definition, any children under 6 years of age who are related to a licensee, administrator, or employee and who are on the premises of the Type A home shall be counted. The term "Type A family day-care home" does not include a residence in which the needs of children are administered to, if all such children are siblings of the same immediate family and the residence is their home.
3. Type B Family Day Care Home, means a permanent residence of the provider in which child day-care or child day-care services are provided for 1 to 6 children at one time and in which no more than 3 children may be under 2 years of age at any one time. In counting children for the purposes of this definition, any children under 6 years of age who are related to the provider and are on the premises of the Type B home shall be counted. The term "Type B family day-care home" does not include a residence in which the needs of children are administered to, if all such children are siblings of the same immediate family and the residence is their home.

COLLECTOR STREET: Roadways intended to collect traffic generated in major residential areas and carry it to one of the roads in the arterial network. Generally, the existing primary collectors are portions of county roads originally built to accommodate through traffic. Residential development tributary to these roads, however, has or will create a situation where the arterial function is subordinate to the collector function.

DEVELOPMENT: Any man-made change to improved or unimproved real estate, or the subdividing of land into two or more parcels. For the purposes of this Resolution, the following activities or uses shall be considered "development:"

1. Any change in a structure including the reconstruction, or alteration of its size, or change in its external appearance.
2. A change in the intensity of use of land, such as an increase in the number of dwellings in a structure or on land or an increase in the number of businesses, manufacturing establishments, offices, or dwellings in a structure or on land.
3. Clearing of land, including clearing or removal of vegetation other than customary yard and/or grounds maintenance and including any significant disturbance of vegetation or soil manipulations.
4. Deposit of refuse, solid or liquid waste, or fill on a parcel of land.

"Development" includes all other activity customarily associated with it. When appropriate to the context, "development" refers to the act of developing or to the result of development. Reference to any specific operation is not intended to mean that the operation or activity is not development. Reference to particular types of operations is not intended to limit the scope of this definition.
